

Worksheet 1 – Basic terms

Answer that the following statements are true or false?

1. Computer technology is a more general term than Informatics.
2. Computer technology is a general science of information processing.
3. Information reduces uncertainty.
4. The information system provides transfer, storage and processing of data.
5. Information and communication technologies include working with information and its dissemination.
6. Hardware includes all computer programs.
7. The keyboard and monitor are among the hardware.
8. Software is the collection of physical elements of computers.
9. Software is divided into basic software and application programs.
10. Operating systems are not among the software.
11. Computer networks allow computers to exchange data.
12. Network software controls the connection and exchange of information between network nodes.