

Worksheet 1 – Software's license

Fill the appropriate words into the gaps.

1. is the exclusive right of the author to make copies of their own programs.
2. The gives the user the right to use the software legally.
3. license is characterized by direct dependency on the hardware.
4. The time-limited test program before purchase is called version of the program.
5. Program with limited functionality intended for testing before purchase it is called a
6. is a form of distribution of programs, which leaves the author copyright rights, but allows free access to fully functional software to other users without charge.
7. is intended for the lawful use of the program on multiple computers simultaneously.
8. are programs that don't need to be installed and can be run directly from USB flash disk.
9. is an internet-based model development and use of computer technology.
10. Illegal software modification program that replaces the license code with it's own code is called