

Worksheet 8 – Backup

Fill the appropriate words into the gaps.

1. The primary principle of backing up your data is that any important data should exist in
.....
2. One of the rules in using computers is back up your files
.....
3. Backup programsthe data so that backups require disks.
4. An is a collection of computer files that have been packaged together for
.....
5. is a process that involves copying backup files from secondary storage to hard disk.
6.backup is the replication of data through software that performs backup tasks without human interaction.
7. Backup and recovery enables to and information.
8. You will be able to back up not only your intellectual property but also your files and
9. contains a copy of Windows and copies of your programs, system settings, and files.
10. The should be labelled as precisely as possible with the date, and some information to indicate what data has been backed up.